

Imagine: Your Life Without Prison

Hey, my name is Allison!

I imagine my life without prison every day and why? Because I want so much more for myself. I am so much more! I look back on my past life events that ever took place like "did it make me better or did it make me worst?" I ask myself that every day. I believe I am a good person at heart even in this cold world we live in that's more full of hate rather than love. I'm the person I am today because of all the things I take on and endure. I see a very bright future for myself after incarceration. I am a son, a brother, an uncle, and a father so I got a lot responsibilities as a man to attend to outside of prison. It's easier said than done! It's so easy to do bad rather than good!
