

“Newmen” of many hues.

We are “Hu-man, let us meld and emerge as the “New-men.

Threaten not with harm, but threaten to help surpass challenges.

Threaten not to cause losses, but threaten to help gain increases.

Act not with malice, for fear of danger, act with intent of stability and calm.

Act not to fulfill greeds, act with intent to relieve needs.

Think, and plan, not to acquire material wealths, for the sake of acquisition alone and the things you missed in the past. Concentrate, think, and plan for the future, focus on how and when, you shall declare success of helping protect and develop the world’s occupants and usher in the more pleasant, stable, healthy and peaceful location reflecting the idea of paradise for all; while simultaneously challenging the unknown for viable revelations.
