

Isaiah McClinton, G-30731
Words Uncaged

Slavery

A slave is nothing to be proud of,
When new-age slavery is right under your nose,
And the cold thing about it all,
Is everybody think they are free,
That's including the ones that's still on the streets,
Supposedly thinking that they are being all they can be,
But think again, I mean really, watch TV,
TV stands for Tell a Vision,
A Vision that these wicked people want you to see,
I mean just think about the show TMZ,
They talk about things like "oh did you see them teeth",
Them people got the masses hoodwinked and bamboozled,
I know cuz I used to be one of the Goyim,
But I came to learn that their plan is just one big tree,
With their roots planted like solid feet,
The branches acting like ropes to reach out and grab you, and secure their prize,
I'm trying to tell you that these people don't give a dam about our cries,
They done captured out soul, body, and mind,
Now they not worried about us standing up as a whole together,
Being a slave is being at the bottom of the totem pole...