“Land of IF”

The land of “IF” has no hierarchy,
no moral majority,
no rationale of teaching,
it’s good or bad by government.
The people live with the land,
hunting, gathering, sharing.
There are no starving children,
nor homeless,
no information web, tv,
nor media terrorism to corrupt minds, there is no monetary value system to incorporate greed, theft, or jealousy.
The people have no name for work, “it’s what we do when it needs to be done”
in speaking of building, hunting or gathering.
Prisons do not exist!
There is no government to encroach upon others, oppressing the downtrodden, there are no man-made
laws to break,
there is no chaos.
The folks do what is necessary to eat, sleep, live comfortably.
I call this the land of “IF” because IF, we the civilized people, would have left even the most remote IF’s alone,
IF would still exist.
Now it is no longer “IF”
it is when!
When civilization destroys
it’s self,
we will go back to “IF.”
