Daddy's Girl

What is love?

Love is a feeling that extends so far,
Cause the day you was born, I was anxious to hold you in my arms.
Watching you grow, to be the woman that you are,
Makes me glad that I was there to play my part.
Unconditional love from a father to his daughter.
Words can't express, how happy I am to be your father...
